

SHARED SERVICES ARRANGEMENTS

Authorities: Texas Education Code; 19 TAC Chapter 89

	Additional Resources
	FEDERAL AND STATE REQUIREMENTS
Practice	The local educational agency (LEA) must comply with the GENERAL AND FISCAL GUIDELINES framework.
Practice	The board of trustees of an LEA may contract with a public or private entity for that entity to provide educational services for the district. Citations: TEC 11.157
Practice	Shared services arrangements School districts that contract for services from non-public day schools must operate in accordance with the procedures developed by the Texas Education Agency. Citations: 89.1075(f)
Practice	Regional education service centers may serve as the fiscal agent for shared services arrangements in compliance with general program requirements and local district procedures under state law. Citations: 89.1141(f)

Last Updated: ~~Apr 16, 2025~~ Thu, Jan 16, 2020